As a follow up to earlier legal seminars, the FCI Legal Committee is pleased to offer a new seminar “Legal Issues in Receivables Finance”. The programme will cover all key areas of the legal scheme with a special focus on everything there is to know about the General Rules of International Factoring (GRIF), the background of certain articles and the implications for day-to-day business.

OBJECTIVES

With several presentations by industry experts the Training will also provide the attendees with a deeper understanding of the most recent developments in UNCITRAL, FCIreverse and Shariah-Compliant Factoring.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

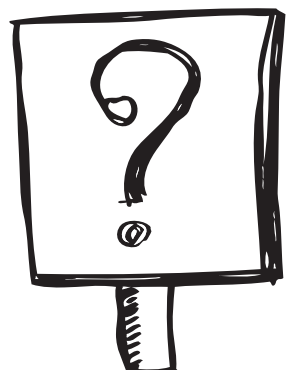

This training will benefit those involved in new businesses, operations, risk monitoring, legal, compliance, litigation departments and external lawyers if appropriate, who wish to develop their existing knowledge of legal matters in Factoring and the GRIF.

The Training is primarily meant for all FCI members and non-FCI member (observers) in Europe, but will also be open, as usual, for attendants from other parts of the world. Because of the scope of the Training, attendants should have a direct interest in understanding the finer details of the FCI GRIF.

THIS TRAINING IS A “MUST ATTEND” EVENT FOR ALL FCI MEMBERS IN MATURE AND EMERGING MARKETS.

STYLE AND CONTENTS

The format for this Seminar will combine plenum presentations with Q&A sessions and smaller group discussions with practical examples and genuine cases. Members of the FCI Legal Committee and guests speakers will act as presenters and instructors in all sessions of the training.
